Press Release

Suburban Manufacturing, Inc. moved into a new facility effective May 18th.

Suburban Manufacturing completed moving all operations that had been previously located in two separate facilities into a brand new 45,000 sq. ft. facility that was custom built for the company as of Friday, May 18th. An open house was held for all employees and their families on Sunday, May 20th. As of Monday, May 21st all departments were in operation in the new facility.

Peter Thompson, CEO of Suburban Manufacturing commented “having all of our operations contained within one facility will enhance the effectiveness and productivity of our operations and improve the service levels we provide to our customers. Along with all of the employees I am excited to have the move behind us and appreciate all of the accoutrements the new facility provides. I want to thank all of our employees and the suppliers who assisted us in building and moving into our new facility”.
